Dear Mr. Meredith,

I go to an integrated school, I am white but I do not think there is a difference between you and me. I am proud of you. We have a Negro house keeper and she plays with me. One of my father's brothers is a Negro and my grandma adopted him. He has a wife and two children and one is my age. He is fun to play with.

I would like to meet you. I've read about you in the news paper. I think you were very brave in going through the thing you had to do.

Yours truly,

Chris

Dear Ehris:

Please forgive me if you are a boy and I addressed you as a girl. However, if you are a girl I have nothing to worry about.

Any way thank you very much for your lovely letter expressing such kind thoughts.

Sincerely yours,
